

The Miami Herald

October 2, 2012

In 2002 the county leased 430 acres at its southern-most airport to Wright Farms Corp. Three years later, after learning the company had subleased some of the property, the county ordered Wright Way off the land. Wright Way filed a lawsuit, (represented by David B. Haber, P.A.) and now the county is prepared to pay the firm $225,000, acknowledging it never sought a court ruling when it evicted the tenant.