Haber Slade Partner Roger Slade Presents Seminar Entitled “Fraud in the Modern World”

MIAMI (July 12, 2017) – Haber Slade Partner Roger Slade recently presented a seminar entitled "Fraud in the Modern World." The presentation took place at the Miami accounting firm Morrison Brown Argiz & Farra and was broadcast live to multiple MBAF offices throughout the country.

The seminar included:

- Slade’s analysis of recent cases in which Haber Slade is currently involved which reflect new and more innovative methods used by dishonest business people to fleece and deceive the unwary.
- Tried and true methods of deception including the familiar “bait and switch,” the use of forged signatures and a discussion of modern trends in identity theft.

Slade has more than 25 years of business litigation experience. He has devoted a substantial portion of his practice to represent businesses and individuals who have been defrauded or cheated by dishonest business partners, sellers of real estate and goods and others involved in general commercial transactions. He is “AV” rated by the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory, the highest rating given to practicing attorneys.

Slade handles business disputes of all kinds, federal court complex litigation, including Plaintiffs’ class action lawsuits, and international family law cases. He has a recognized expertise in representing business owners in disputes with shareholders.

Slade served on the Board of the Council for Educational Change, which is dedicated to improving Florida’s public schools. Slade until recently was the Chairman of the Council’s “Lawyer Alliance” whose purpose is to connect Florida lawyers to the Public School System. Slade and his colleagues in the Lawyer’s Alliance have donated hundreds of hours of Pro Bono time to Florida school children by teaching classes in law at local high schools and by taking students on guided tours of the Florida Court System.

Slade writes frequently on litigation and is the author of a blog on litigation skills at www.florida-litigator.com.
