MIAMI (January 7, 2015) - The Miami-based Law Office of David B. Haber, P.A. is pleased to announce that Partner Roger Slade has been named a shareholder and the firm has changed its name to Haber Slade.

"With our business growth, comes an outstanding opportunity for change as we promote Roger Slade to named partner," said Founding Partner David B. Haber. "Roger's leadership and excellent track record are very important to the firm in its continued expansion."

"I am honored to become a named partner alongside David Haber," said Slade, a commercial litigator with more than 25 years of business litigation experience. "It's thrilling and quite rewarding to work alongside the best team players a firm could have. David and I worked together years ago, and coming back last year to work with him has been very rewarding, natural and comfortable, as if we had never been practicing law separately. Returning to work with David was a great decision for me. Becoming a named partner and shareholder is simply a natural progression in our firm's growth."

Slade has been honored by Florida Super Lawyers every year since 2011. He serves on the Board of the Council for Educational Change which is dedicated to improving Florida's public schools. Slade is the Chairman of the Council's "Lawyer's Alliance" which connects Florida lawyers to the public school system.

Haber Slade is rated "AV" by Martindale-Hubbell, as are Haber and Slade. The "AV" rating is the highest such rating available and indicates a high-degree of peer recognition and professional achievement.
